AN ACT

For the relief of Stephen C. Yednock.

August 2, 1971
[H. R. 1892]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Stephen C. Yednock, the sum to which he would be entitled under section 5724 of title 5 of the United States Code (or under the provisions of previous section 73b-1 of that title) and the regulations issued thereunder without regard to section 1.3d of Bureau of the Budget Circular numbered A-56, for the expenses of transporting, packing, crating, temporarily storing, draying, and unpacking his household goods and personal effects incident to his transfer in October 1965, to Bethesda, Maryland, as an employee of the Naval Ships Systems Command, Department of the Navy. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

AN ACT

For the relief of Arnold D. Smith.

August 2, 1971
[H. R. 1907]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Arnold D. Smith of San Jose, California, is hereby relieved of liability to the United States in the amount of $174.10, representing overpayments paid to him while a member of the United States Navy as the result of an administrative error made in his leave record on June 30, 1961, which error occurred without fault on his part. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, full credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

Arnold D. Smith.

SEC. 2. (a) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said Arnold D. Smith an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts paid by him, or withheld from sums otherwise due him, with respect to the indebtedness to the United States specified in the first section of this Act.

(b) No part of the amount appropriated by subsection (a) of this section in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved August 2, 1971.
